Jim Hoehn - SILHOUETTE OF A FOOL

The main professional activity of Jim Hoehn from Milwaukee in the U.S. state of Wisconsin is his work as a sportswriter. He has for many years a popular, substantiated with humor column written about raising children and everything will look when it received.

But the fact that he could cope so well with the pen has also meant that he has started to become proficient at writing lyrics. And because he is also a large dose of musical inventiveness felt flowing through the veins, it was obvious that he was composing music for his lyrics musically to dress.

That he was on the point where these songs to yourself to take a CD to market. Four full-cd<sup>1</sup> s later it happened again now with the ten songs constituent Silhouette Of A Fool album<sup>3 2</sup>, the follow up to his album<sup>3 2</sup> Royalty Check Hotel from 2009.

The producer of this album is John Sieger, these specialists might know as co-founder of the Education & B Cadets<sup>1</sup>, a rock and R & B combo that in the years<sup>1 80</sup> very popular in Milwaukee area, and also Paul Cebar, Bob Jennings and John<sup>1</sup> s brother Mike Sieger in its ranks.

The songs on this new album of Jim Hoehn his short stories to music that lies somewhere between country, folk and Americana positions. Vocals Jim Hoehn is no high flyer to mention, but that he is very good with words can deal appears from the texts of these songs, which contained a lot of humor.

Sometimes calls a comparison of his work on the songs of someone like Warren Zevon and Jonathan Richman. Jim Hoehn will<sup>2 3</sup> Silhouette Of A Fool not too large pieces to make this music, but it's a pretty nice album which will provide easy and pleasant entertainment.
